

The Changing Face of Bereavement:

Providing care and maintaining our own wellbeing during the pandemic

SAVE THE DATE!

NHS Education for Scotland's 2nd national bereavement education conference:

DATE

Wednesday 24 February 2021
Morning (half-day event)

VENUE

Virtual (full details will follow)

COST

Free

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Health and social care professionals

WHY ATTEND?

Delegates will have the opportunity to hear from a range of speakers on COVID and non-COVID related bereavement topics which will be relevant for those working across health and social care.

A strong emphasis will be placed on case scenarios throughout the programme, to maximise the potential for practical and clinical application.

CPD CREDITS

To be confirmed

TOPICS COVERED WILL INCLUDE:

- Reflections and experiences of bereavement from across the frontline
- Psychological perspectives on bereavement, loss and grief during a pandemic crisis
- Staff wellbeing and moral injury
- Bereavement needs of families following a death in ITU
- Anticipatory grief and dealing with bereavement as a child or young person
- What happens to your digital assets after you die and how do you plan for a digital legacy?

- How does the disruption to rites and ritual due to a pandemic impact on grieving?

Further information, including a conference programme and details on how to register will follow

To note interest in attending and for any queries please contact events@nes.scot.nhs.uk

#NESBereavement2021

www.sad.scot.nhs.uk

@NES_Bereavement