

Supporting primary care teams to talk and be with people who are bereaved or experiencing living grief

Free Bereavement Webinar

DATE / TIME

Wednesday 26th January 2022, 17:00-18:00

SPEAKER

Lynne Innes, Senior Educator, Grief & Bereavement, NHS Education for Scotland (NES)

Lynne was a General Practice Nurse & Advanced Nurse Practitioner in General Practice for 20 years before joining NES

TARGET AUDIENCE

Primary care teams, health and social care staff

This webinar will cover:

- how to talk and be with people, whether patients, families, carers or colleagues, who are experiencing bereavement or 'living grief'
- the sense of loss that may follow knowing or caring for someone with a long-term or degenerative condition
- the information and resources available to health and social care professionals on the NES Support Around Death website
