

Join us for the third annual NHS Education for Scotland bereavement
conference — a free,
one-day virtual event for all health and social care staff.

Thursday 24th November 2022

A range of topics will be covered including:

- + Digital legacies
- + Anticipatory grief
- + The bereavement experiences of Gypsies and Travellers
- + Supporting those affected by bereavement in prison
- + The value of listening
- + Bereavement following substance use
- + Unexpected death — an Emergency Department perspective
- + Traumatic bereavement in children and young people
- + Bereavement in the workplace

The conference will be opened by Professor Jason Leitch, National Clinical Director, Scottish Government.

We will also hear from keynote speaker Michael Rosen, author of 'Many Different Kinds of Love: A story of life, death and the NHS'.

Programme

Please click here to view programme

Registration

Please click here to register

For further information including details regarding poster abstract submission, please visit the NES Events website